

NEW YORK LIVING MAGAZINE

May 2007

New Developments in Chelsea

By Steve Cutler

Oculus Condominium, 50 West 15th Street

Designed by FXFOWLE Architects, the Oculus has a terracotta façade inspired by Italian Renaissance architecture. The building features 47 studio to three-bedroom residences with Brazilian cherry floors and doors and double-glazed Wausau windows. Kitchens feature quartz countertops, Poggenpohl cabinetry and Viking appliances. Penthouses include terraces.

www.oculuscondo.com